

TMPH Paper Submission for NDI-2023

Dear participant of the 4th International Conference on “Integrable Systems & Nonlinear Dynamics”, Yaroslavl, 25–29.09.2023!

We would like to announce that a collection of articles based on the talks presented at the Conference traditionally will be published as a separate volume of the journal “Theoretical and Mathematical Physics” (TMPH). The Russian version of the journal website is TMΦ, and the English version of the journal website is TMPH.

The journal will consider for publication any original research paper from people participated (in person or online) in the Conference. All manuscripts will be subject to refereeing as regular journal papers according to the rules of TMPH.

Preparation of your submission

In preparing your work for publication please note that:

- The deadline for submitting your manuscripts is October 31, 2023.
- The size of the contribution should be 15-25 journal (i.e., the standard TeX) pages.
- Contributions may be written in English or Russian. All manuscripts accepted for publication will be translated either from Russian to English or from English to Russian for publishing in both the Russian and English editions of the journal.
- All (La)TeX dialects are accepted.
- Please, make a special paragraph: “Conflict of Interest: The authors declare that they have no conflicts of interest.” More detail on this topic you can find on the Springer site here.
- In order to submit an article, please, use the journal web page here for the English version or here for the Russian version.
- During submission, please mention in the comments (at the final step of submission) that your article is submitted for Proceedings of the Satellite International Conference on “Integrable Systems Nonlinear Dynamics”, Yaroslavl, 25–29.09.2023.
- In case of any problems, please, contact TMPH’s Managing Editor Mrs. Svetlana Sushko by the email address tmph@mi-ras.ru.
